Response to Amendment

1. The reply filed on 10/22/01 is not fully responsive to the prior Office action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): Applicant has not filed a terminal disclaimer in response to the obviousness-type double patenting rejections over U.S. Patent No. 5,831,066 and U.S. Patent No. 6,040,181. '066 and '181 specifically claim the instantly claimed SEQ ID NO:17. The inclusion of SEQ ID NO:17 in the claims of '066 and '181 rendered the instant claimed invention of SEQ ID NO:17 obvious in view of '066 and '181. MPEP 804.02, Section IV, paragraph 2, states why it is necessary for Applicant to file a terminal disclaimer: "Disclaiming each one of the conflicting double patenting references is necessary to avoid the problem of dual ownership of patents to patentably indistinct inventions in the event that the patent issuing from the application being examined ceases to be commonly owned with any one of the double patenting references that have issued or may issue as a patent." This requirement stands at any phase of examination of the instant Application as long as the claims under examination are subject to a double patenting rejection. Filing a terminal disclaimer immediately prior to allowance of the Application, especially if the allowance is made after a final rejection, does not leave the Examiner with a sufficient amount of time to request the Terminal Disclaimer from Applicant and have it properly processed and entered. In the event that only claims which do not read on the claims of '066 or '181 are found to be allowable in the instant Application, the filed Terminal Disclaimer may be rescinded. See 37 CFR 1.111. Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide,
